Providence Church is a community of baptized believers with the mission to glorify God by making disciples who love God and others.

If you are interested in joining our church family, please contact one of the elders. Upon recommendation of the elders one is a member after an affirming vote of the congregation.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
I believe in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord;
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the Virgin Mary, He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy universal church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

“The marvel of marvels is not that God, in His infinite love, has not elected all of this guilty race to be saved, but that He has elected any.” ~ Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield

The elders are available to share your prayer concerns in the foyer during the song following the sermon. You are also welcome to use the “Tell the Elders” box to communicate.

“[Justification] is a declarative act in which God pronounces the sinner just or righteous, that is, declares that the claims of justice, so far as he is concerned, are satisfied, so that he cannot be justly condemned, but is in justice entitled to the reward promised or due to perfect righteousness . . . The righteousness of Christ is in justification imputed to the believer. That is, is set to his account, so that he is entitled to plead it at the bar of God, as though it were personally and inherently his own.” ~ Charles Hodge
