Andorra is a landlocked microstate on the border of France and Spain where it is landlocked.

It is in the eastern Pyrenees Mountains and has an average elevation of 6550 feet. The official language is Catalan with others including Spanish, Portuguese and French. Its population in 2012 was estimated at 85,000.

Andorra is relatively prosperous. Tourism is the main industry accounting for 80% of the GDP.

About 91% of the population claims to be Christian. Of that only .4% is evangelical.

Prayer challenges: Biblical Christianity struggles to retain a foothold. There is a need for the few believers to have the zeal to share their faith.
